About Adrienne

Adrienne Graham is passionately committed to helping individuals live their best professional & entrepreneurial lives, and companies grow, prosper and thrive in any economy. As a growth-focused Strategist, Adrienne provides audiences with the information, tools, implementable strategies, motivation, actionable advice and inspiration that gets them "unstuck" and take their career, business and even network to the next level. She customizes every presentation (and infuses her humor and real heart-to-heart style) to deliver maximum impact on her audiences, and always draws audience participation (on and off the stage). She leaves her audiences wanting more time with her, but also ready to take action. And most important, she leaves people with a sense of self-worth and empowerment.

Adrienne is the CEO & Founder of Empower Me! Corporation (www.empowerme.org), a media, publishing and professional development organization, and CEO of Hues Consulting & Management Inc. (www.huesconsulting.com) a full service recruitment consulting firm. She is the voice behind Views From the Top Radio Show and the creator of Empower Me! Radio, Empower Me Institute, Empower Me! Magazine, Empowered Woman TV, and the Next Level Business Strategies. She has taken what started as a small professional network for women, and turned it into an international multi-media and networking power brand.

Adrienne is known as a Networking Power Broker who has mastered traditional and social networking. The author of four self-published books, she wrote THE BOOK on Fearless Networking and set the bar for how all women network in the 21st century. She has been featured in numerous publications, radio shows and blogs as a subject matter expert on careers, entrepreneurship and networking for Black Enterprise, Financial Times, Essence Magazine, Inc. Magazine, Entrepreneur Magazine. She's even been quoted by Dylan Ratigan on the Dylan Ratigan Show on MSNBC.

In 2010 her radio show Views From the Top was selected as a Top 100 Heavy Hitter Radio Show for Small Business (one of only 8 shows from BlogTalkRadio and one of two woman-hosted shows) by Small Business Trends. She is also a contributing blogger on Forbes.com.
